Senator Heffren, one of the fighting Indiana Green turtle-soup is now made at Key West, and canned for shipment all over the world. It bids fair to become a great article of trade.

A boy sixteen years old, named Henry Ranwas recently arraigned at Brighton, England, for bigamy, and the offense was proved. The Delaware Legislature has passed an act legalizing letteries, and it has repealed the law prohibiting the issue of notes below $5.

Wm. Clemmons, of Nicholasville, Ky., has been granted a patent for an improvement in hemming guides for sewing machines.

There are now three hundred patients in the Indiana Hospital for the Insane—the largest number that has ever been within its walls at one time.

The French Minister of War has given or-ders that further experiments should be made with fulminating cotton, to be used in place of gunpowder, according to an improved plan. The steamer Lena, a vessel built in Philadelphia, and drawing three and a half feet of water, went last year up to Stratuisk, in Russia, on the Amoor, a distance of 3,000 miles. The Rev. Charles Bencher, of Georgetown, Mass., is reported to have renounced the doc-trine of original depravity in his pulpit, on a Sunday, declaring that men are born as pure as Adam was, with every fault perfect.

The receipts of wheat at Cleveland for 1858 are given at 1,488,578 bushels, and at Cincinnati, for the same time, at 1.211.545 bushels .the latter being heavier than in any previous

A free nigger, named John McClelland, escaped from the Indiana Penitontiary, at Jeffersonville, on Saturday. He was in the woods, where he left his uniform and ran off naked. This makes five who have got away recently. John Borland, Postmaster at Clifton Station on the Illinois Central Railroad, has been held to ball before U. S. Commissioner Hoyne in this city, in $500, to answer to the charge of opening letters in his charge. James R. Belleville, late an employee in the Chicago Post-office, and arrested for robbing the mails in his charge, has been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, the lowest limit fixed On Monday last, at Louisville, Ky., the following persons were sold: A negro man, 20 years old, for $1,050: and a family of slaves, four in number, aged 35, 30, 6 and 2 years, were sold at $1,900. A man in Orange, Massachusetts, was married on the 9th ultimo, became a father on the 10th, and advertised his wife on the 14th, cautioning all persons against trusting her on An Opposition Convention of the counties of Boone, Carroll and Gallatin will be held at Warsaw, Ky., on the third Monday in May, to nominate a candidate for Senator to the State

A convention of Ohio lawyers, we hear, is to come off at Columbus, some time next month. The object of the convention is to make a few speeches, eat, drink and be merry, read some tonsts, shake hands and disperse. At White Hall, Madison County, Ky., on the 2d inst., James Manpin, a youth of fifteen years, shot his cousin, Henry Fowler, aged about eighteen years. No one was present but ne-groes, and the particulars are not known. The wounded youth will die. Mrs. Herrin, wife of A. B. Herrin, a wealthy citizen of Hopkins County, Ky., eloped with one Conway, a man of bad character, lately. Added to wealth, she was possessed of accom-plishments, and was very handsome. No reason is assigned for the strange freak. We read in Porter's Spirit: "Scotland has a opresentative who is willing to meet any man in America, at the game of draughts, for a cer-tain reasonable sum. The disciples of check-ers had better, therefore, overhaul their men, and see what they can do. What say Hamil-ton and Clinton?"

ABBERT OF A MINISTER.—The Blooming-ton Pantagraph treats its readers to the fol-lowing morsel:—A minister of the gospel, named Sheppard, was lodged in the jail of this county the other morning. He has been preaching for some time in the northern part of the county, and he is charged with an office similar to that which was charged upon a man named Joseph, who was employed by a wealthy Egyptian, named Potiphar, a great many years ago. Great excitement is said to exist in the northern part of the county in relation to the minister's examination was finished, in Hud-son, he was attacked by a man while he was in the charge of an officer. His assailant broke a cane over his head, and would have injured him severely had not the officers interfered. We are informed that the minister's friends intend to see if they can get him released by a writ of habeas corpus. As the matter will un-dergo judicial investigation before long, we refrain from commenting further upon it.

LIVING TELEGRAPH POSTS.—The proposition to plant locust-trees along the lines of our railroads and other public routes, to be used as supports for the telegraphic wires, is an excellent one, and it is only remarkable that it was not suggested and carried into execution long ago. A young locust will soon grow to a pro-per hight, and, aside from its beauty and healthimportant considerations in a country from the settled portions of which the timber is rapidly disappearing—it would afford a permanent, living and growing support to the wires of the telegraph for years to come. The econ-omy of the project is manifest. When O'Reilly was stretching his wires between the Atlantic and the Mississippi, if locust saplings had been planted by the side of every post, a permanent and indestructible telegraph-way would now be the consequence—saving an expense of re-pair and renewal, and adding to the picturesque beauty of the traversed routes. Indeed, the trees would be steadily increasing in value and usefulness year after year .- Cin. Artisan.

THE PUDDLER STRIKE at Pittsburg continues, and we perceive that the Journal of that city pleads the cause of the employers: "In manufacture as well as commerce, all is guided by the unvarying laws of supply and demand. If our manufacturers have a constant and paying demand, the employes will be paid at the highest rates; if they happen to be slow and dull, the employes must censent to receive lower rates. The capital employed in our man-ufactures is all actual cash, and is regarded as such. None could dare to dishonor their obligations, unless they would wish to stop their works and machinery. "For the last eighteen months their sales have been greatly restricted by the embarrass-ments of the West, and consequently, in order to keep their works in operation, they have had to observe retrenchment and caution, at the same time guarding against throwing their hands out of employment. The prospects of the spring trade are brighter, though not yet fully determined to their satisfaction.

"We, therefore, are sorry to hear that before the complete revival of trade and demand for manufactures are determined and made certain, that many of the puddlers have struck.

"This we think unwise on their part; better first that they should ascertain whether the trade of the coming season will justify it or not. The demand in the West may be only a aporary one; if so, then strikes may result

"We learn that the Sharpabug, Girty Run, Coleman, Hailman & Co., Shoenberger's Mills, Bailey, Brown & Co., Clinton, and James Wood

THE HAWRENGER TRACEDY,—From a long article on this their in the Louisville Courier, we clip the following:

When Lowe cance out of the widow's house and gave up his arms, it was upon a soleian pledge of the worl of honor of his assailants that he should not be molested. He had hardly started for the court-house, however, before a renewed attack was made upon him, and re-peated shots fired. He would then have been killed but for the interference of A. M. Mayo, himself a personal enemy of Lowe's, but who had too many of the instincts of the gentleman about him to permit such an outrage when he was by. He succeeded in arresting the attack. We learn another fact that places Jüdge Stewart in no enviable light. Judge Stewart had possession of the keys of the jail; he had pledged himself, in a public speech to the citizens, to keep them; yet, in despite of this pledge, he absolutely forced the jailor to take them from him, and in less than half an hour flarward the judge and the places are all the second that the second the second the second the second that the second the second that the second the second that the second the second the second the second that the second t afterward the jailor was compelled to open the jail door to admit the assassins. Why did not Judge Stewart keep the keys, as he had promised; instead of giving them to an ignorant jailor, to be bullied by the assassins?

It is stated that Withrow & Davidson, the assassins of Lowe, used the pistols of the unfortunate man who fell a victim to their relentless and savage atrocity. And in the street fight which occurred the day before the assasination, no less than thirty-five holes were shot in his clothes. We learn further that Withrow, one of the assassins, was indicted for getting in an im-proper way the money of a drunken man, and that it was through Lowe's instrumentality that the indictment was found. It stood for trial at the present term, but the indictment has been quashed since Lowe's death, for some real or pretended informality upon its face. This too needs explanation. We learn, also, that the report of the Grand Jury was not their voluntary act, but was forced from them by the assassins. We do not know that this fact places them in any better attitude before the country.

The whole atrocious villainy has been done by some eight or ten persons, who have made use of the Maxwell difficulty to wreak their own cowardly vengeance upon Lowe for past difficulties, which they had not the manly courage to meet him singly upon. Many of the citizens of Hawesville either stood cowardly by, afraid to raise voice or hand sgainst the sickening brutality of the assassins, or fied from the town.

It is not a case of misled public excitement.
It is nothing of the kind. It is simply a town conquered by a gang of cowardly assassins. Nine out of ten of the citizens would vote to hang the miscreants to-morrow, if they dared. Heaven help such a community.

The journeymen tailors of Davenport, Iowa, are on "strike" for the maintenance of their present wages. The reduction made by the "masters" is as follows: For making fine coat, price reduced from $5 68 to 4 75 and $5 00; on pants, from $1 65 to 1 45; on vests, from $1 25 to 1 00. At these prices, it is averred by the masters, an average journeyman can make $9 00 per week; but on the other hand the journeymen say, "it is all a mistake, for it takes a man 12 hours of hard work to make a vest, for which work the employers propose to pay one dollar; one day and a half to make a pair of pants, or fifteen hours work, for $1 35."

SMELTING IRON WITH BITUMINOUS COAL.The St. Louis Republican, of a late date, says: "We have been shown a letter from the super-intendent in charge of the furnaces at the Iron Mountain, to the proprietors in this city, conveying the very important and gratifying in-telligence of the complete success of the trial now being made in one of their furnaces, to smelt the ores of that vast deposit with the raw bituminous coals which surround our city, and which have heretofore been generally supposed by Iron Masters to be entirely impracti-

A few evenings since a murder was commit-ted in Newcastle, Va. A young man, named Starks, went to the house of a Miss Polly Tucker and asked admission, but was refused He then went to the window and attempted to enter that way. Miss Tucker threatened to strike him with an ax. He laughingly told her to strike away, which she did, cleaving his skull open, from the effects of which he died in Important Testimony.

From Hon. J. W. Chapman, Judge of First Judicial District, Indiana. Madison, and., 1808.

Dr. Gro. W. Philaips, Cincinnati, Ohio:—Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup, personally and in my family, and having seen its effects on others, in numerous instances of severe cold and coughs, I most chearfully recommend it as an infallible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the colds, accompanied by coughs, that now term nate in Consumption, would be effectually arrested. In fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can obta u this remedy, being thus afflicted.

Respectfully yours,

J. W. CHAPMAN. Madison, and., 1858.

Laryngitis Cured without Faith. From Rev. Jas. Brown, Minister of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Madison.

Dr. Geo. W. Phillips—Dear Sir. About a year ago I had an attack of Laringitis, to which I have been subject for a number of years. Learning that this was the fact, you handed me a bottle of your Cough Medicine. My confidence in your preparation was, I confess, not great. Nevertheless, as it was innocent and could do no harm, I was induced to try if, and I am happy to say, with entire success. It not only cured me then, but I have had little or no affection of the kind since. This statement is cheerfully given, with the hope that others may be induced to follow my example, and receive the same benefit.

I am yours, &c.,

Read This, Also. From Hon. B. Storer, LL. D., Judge of the Superior Court of Cineinnati. Court of Cincinnati.
